

FLORENCE-FIRESTONE COMMUNITY GOES GREEN
IN CELEBRATION OF EARTH DAY

County Promotes Environmental Responsibility

SOUTHEAST LOS ANGELES (April 17, 2006) – In celebration of Earth Day, Los Angeles County Supervisors Gloria Molina and Mark Ridley-Thomas join the Los Angeles County Departments of Public Works and Parks and Recreation in promoting energy conservation and a cleaner and greener community.

WHAT: Get Hip - Go Green Fest '09

WHEN: Saturday, April 18, 2009, 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

WHERE: Roosevelt Park. 7600 Graham Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90001

WHO: Hosted by Los Angeles County Supervisors Gloria Molina, Mark Ridley-Thomas along with the County's Department of Public Works and Parks and Recreation, and Sempra Energy.

WHY/HOW: "We are joining other events throughout the nation in celebration of Earth day by bringing together families, children, community leaders and local residents to generate awareness of resources to help keep the earth clean and green," said Molina and Ridley-Thomas.

Get Hip – Go Green Fest '09 Activities

- Household Hazardous Waste Collection
- Smart Gardening Program
- Sempra Energy money-energy-savings workshops
- Los Angeles Conservation Corps educational programs
- Los Angeles Conservation Corps job opportunities
- Allied Waste free bulky-item and e-waste pick up
- Central Basin Municipal Water District informational booth
- Southern CA Edison informational booth

Other

- La Nueva, 101.9 FM - special appearance by "El Pistolero"
- Community performances – dance and cheer-offs
- Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department
- Florence-Firestone Chamber of Commerce

-end-